Nurse Leaders' Boot Camp:

Drills & Skills for Leading an Engaged and Accountable Workforce

If your nurse leaders need a boost to help them bring out the best in others, then Kristin Baird and her team have just what you need!

A registered nurse and former hospital executive, Baird is a highly sought after author, speaker, and consultant who offers motivational, yet pragmatic, solutions for every-day challenges faced by healthcare managers.

Baird's full-day nurse leader workshop focuses on:

- Employee Engagement (a crucial issue in nurse retention)
- Coaching
- Communication Skills

“ We recently engaged Kristin (Kris) Baird to facilitate a full-day workshop for nurse leaders. Her refreshing approach to education and the spirit she possesses for both the profession of nursing and leadership training is inspiring. Kris took the time to truly engage the team. She was inquisitive beforehand regarding the team dynamics, significant challenges that we face, and the culture of our organization. She is certainly not the stereotypical “consultant.” All the participants in attendance deemed our day with Kris valuable and rewarding and look forward to future opportunities to work with her. She had an infectious spirit that leaves you wanting more!”
